

CHRIST CHURCH, RUSHBROOKE, COBH

Sunday - 6 October 1991

Extract from Address by the Primate:

"Christians need to be reminded not just of the world's problems, the world's need. They need to be reminded of their own need to show gratitude. Nowhere is this more important than here in Ireland. A sense of gratitude to Almighty God for all we have which is denied to so many in other parts of the world needs to be constantly in our hearts and minds. There is a burden of great responsibility for those of us who have so much to have this sense of gratitude - but also to be more and more aware of what we can do for those who have so little. The Church of Ireland's Bishops' Appeal has never been more important. Through this fund we are able to answer something of the demands from parts of the world least able to help themselves. I appeal to all members of the Church of Ireland to give generously to the Bishops' Appeal."
